This hotel's retail arm never fails to offer intricate crafted festive hampers, and this year is no different. Perfect for family and friends, its usual flagship Festive Hamper features a treasure trove of signature gourmet delicacies including the hotel's signature kaya jam, Singapore Sling marmalade, kaya tarts, and a bottle of Chateau Bous Mondont 2015 Medoc. These indulgent treats come encased in the hotel's signature chest box.

2. Krusty by Kausmo

If you, or your loved ones, are planning a Christmas dinner party at home, why not complete the spread with a rilette or two? After all, this versatile treat goes well with just about everything from bread slices to pasta. If you don't have time to whip one up, go for Krusty's festive rilette selection instead.

This year, the artisanal bakery is serving up two rillettes spreads: smoked salmon, and duck and cranberry. The former sees a medley of house-smoked salmon, locally grown Mexican tarragon, cucumbers and capers. The latter is a creamy spread that balances savoury duck with gently sweet cranberry flavours. Locally grown fennel finishes the rilette, elevating it with sweet liquorice flavours. These spreads are best enjoyed with its artisanal bread—opt for the bolillo loaf, a fragrant loaf enriched with honey and olive oil.

3. Vin Geek

Christmas is a season celebration, not which is the way to celebrate than with a bottle of vino? If you and your loved ones prefer to celebrate with a night in, rather than out partying, complement your intimate sesh with Vin Geek's Its Frankie Says Relax collection hamper. This hamper is also customisable, complete with a choice of wine, chips, artisanal tea and jam.

Go for the Babich Estate Organic Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2020, an elegant tippie that offers notes of orange, ripe citrus and spice. An extensive selection of chips, artisanal tea, and jam are also available to choose from, such as the cinnamon Matzo chips, tart fig chutney, and refreshing white coconut crème tea.
